The American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages will provide a two-day MOPI workshop on November 12-13, 2004 at the Douglass College Center at Rutgers University funded by the Department of Education. This workshop is an introduction to the techniques of administering and rating the Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) at the Novice and Intermediate level. Participants observe and conduct live practice interviews. They critique and discuss interview elicitation, structure and rating. Participation in a Modified OPI Tester Training Workshop is the first step toward becoming an ACTFL Certified OPI tester with limited certification.

NOTE: Please fax this registration form to Janis Jensen at (609) 292-7276 by 10/1/04.

- You will receive confirmation of your registration by e-mail. In the event you are unable to attend, contact Janis Jensen ASAP so that another participant may be accommodated.
- Parking passes will be e-mailed with confirmation of registration.
- Registration is limited to 25 teachers (due to cost factors) and will be available on a first-come, first-served, basis.
- Sessions will be offered in French, German, Italian, and Spanish.
- Enrollment of less than five participants per language session may not permit a section to be offered in that particular language.
